

NEWS

VIABUY Receives First Place at eKomi & BankingCheck Awards 2016

Good news from PPRO: VIABUY, the PPRO Group's consumer prepaid card programme, received first prize in the "Best Credit Card Provider 2016" category at this year's eKomi & BankingCheck Awards 2016! Overall, customers gave VIABUY 4.2 out of 5.0 euro points—a great result and an unbeatable first place. "We are very proud of this first place award, and our thanks go to all those customers who gave us such positive reviews," said PPRO's Florian Ertelt after the ceremony.

The prizes were awarded on 19th May as part of this year's Banking and Insurance Summit in Berlin. This year, more than 110 banks, insurance companies, FinTechs and financial service providers took part in the eKomi & BankingCheck Awards, persuading over 60,000 customers to provide ratings and reviews. Further information on the award, the participants and winners is available at:

<http://www.bankingcheck.de/bankingcheck-award-2016>.

The PPRO Group's VIABUY programme is a prepaid MasterCard for end consumers. It's linked to an online e-money account and provides the highest level of transparency for all card payment transactions. The gold and black VIABUY cards and NFC stickers for contactless payments can be used worldwide anywhere MasterCard is accepted—both online and offline. Further information is available here: www.viabuy.com.